

Edge Case Test Document

Section 1: Special Characters

This section contains various special characters: © 2024, ® Registered, ™ Trademark, α β γ δ ε — Greek letters, ≥ ≤ ≠ ≈ — Mathematical symbols, → ← ↑ ↓ — Arrows, ★ ■ ♥ ♦ — Unicode symbols.

Section 2: Mixed CJK and Latin

This section mixes CJK characters (■■■■■■■■■■) with Latin text. ■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■■ ■■■■. ■■■■■English■■■■■■■■■■The parser should correctly handle all these scripts without flagging legitimate CJK as garbled text. ■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■

Section 3: Numeric Content

Financial data: $1,234,567.89 | €999.99 | ¥10,000
Dates: 2024-01-15 | 01/15/2024 | 2024■1■15■
Phone: +86-138-0000-0000 | (555) 123-4567
URLs: https://example.com/path?q=search
Email: user@example.com

Section 4: Long Continuous Text

This is a very long paragraph that should test the text merging capabilities of the parser. It contains multiple sentences that should be concatenated correctly. The parser should recognize that these sentences belong together in the same paragraph. It should not split them just because there is a period. The vertical merging algorithm should look at punctuation, spacing, and layout features to make the correct decision about which text boxes to join together.